THIS JUST IN: DG Counseling is revamping their system and undergoing a restorative SPRING CLEANING process!

Here's what's new over @ DG Counseling this spring:

- We have a new office manager...BUT you will have to wait until the May edition of the Newsletter to find out who it is...

- We are also in the process of reviewing new graduate-level intern applications for the Fall of 2010.

- Donna Gluck's Published books can be purchased at the DG Website under the Helpful Resources link. These books tell thoughtful, sensitive stories sympathetically and non-judgmentally to help those with addiction and recovery issues.

- Also, please be on the lookout for future book signings involving Donna Gluck and Robert Bollendorf.

- DG Counselor Matt Rome will be coming out with a demo CD of original music entitled Knocking Down Castles before spring's end, so please stay tuned for details regarding its availability on the DG Website and at our Downers Grove office location!
